The Humility of the Healer

Jesus Christ is the true healer. He taught in the synagogue, he proclaimed the good news of God's reign, and he cured every sickness and disease, and Jesus instructed the twelve to do the same. In Matthew 10: 7-8, Jesus says: "As you go, make this announcement: The reign of God is at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, heal the lepers, and expel demons." The Good News of the reign of God is manifested in healing as caring, assisting people, accompanying them, reconstituting relationships, bringing back a girl to life and restoring her to her family. When God rules, when God reigns, persons are saved, honored, and served with care. Where God rules, wounds are attended to. You see this in the synoptic, you see this in the Gospel of St John. There seems to be a pattern in Jesus' mission of proclaiming the Kingdom, accompanied by healing. There is compassion. Jesus is moved with compassion. Then, Jesus cares. Included in the caring of Jesus is his anger toward the evil that befalls a person, and then the attention with which he cares for the person. Usually the healed person manifests faith in Jesus. But in the end, Jesus would tell them to keep quiet. The humility of Jesus. The humility of the Healer. The Healer will not go around saying: "Hey, hey! Ha! You see that man? He used to be lame! He is able to walk now because of me! Praise me!" No! The healer comes to proclaim the Kingdom of God, not himself. The proclamation of oneself is the way of the kingdom of this world. That's why the kingdoms of this world, operating on ambition, power, self-recognition, they inflict wounds. But Jesus' Kingdom is always a humble, serving Kingdom. That's why it heals, by caring, by compassion, and by love. Let us invite Jesus into our hearts, that though his touch may we be healed and continue to bring healing to others through our presence. We are made to know, to love and to serve.

When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise—in God I trust and am not afraid. What can mere mortals do to me? — Psalm 56:3-4

Have no fear of sudden disaster or of the ruin that overtakes the wicked, for the Lord will be at your side and will keep your foot from being snared. — Proverbs 3:25-26
